

Job Description for Associate Pastor

Triune's mission is to share Christ's love by serving the disadvantaged, including those experiencing homelessness and living in poverty. Through meaningful relationships with our neighbors, we practice a welcoming, inclusive hospitality. Triune uniquely combines limited relief and social work, community and worship, art and friendship. The associate pastor position requires the M.Div. from an accredited seminary; excellent pastoral care, preaching, and social media skills.

The role of associate pastor will include:

- Provide leadership in Sunday worship and other special services.
- Be available to conduct for weddings and memorial services.
- Take primary responsibility for pastoral care of parishioners who are in need of visitation, counseling, or support in times of crisis.
- Coordinate regular and special educational activities, inviting and training leaders from the congregation.
- Cultivate a sense of community within the church by initiating interest groups and special activities.

Basic requirements:

- Master of Divinity from an accredited Seminary (Ordination preferred)
- Excellent relational skills—both leadership and team building
- Comfortable using Google Suite and Microsoft office products and setting up and hosting virtual meetings
- Willing to work weekends and holidays when needed
