Triune Mercy Center

Greenville, South Carolina

An image depicting a scene inspired by Revelation 15:1-3 in the traditional style of the Renaissance era. The scene should showcase a divine occurrence with seven angels possessing seven plagues in a dramatic and iconic manner. It should also feature a 'sea of glass mingled with fire,' with a crowd of victorious individuals standing by it.

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

(based on Psalm 98)

Sing to the Lord a new song,
For our God alone is Lord of all.

Break into joyous songs of praise,
Let all the earth celebrate and rejoice.

For our God comes in victory,
With righteousness and justice for all. Let us worship God!

Hymn

"Come, Thou Almighty King"

Prayer of Confession (In Unison)

O God, you call us to sing your song anew, yet we confess that sometimes we don't feel much like singing. Sometimes we just want to sing of the past. Other times we ignore the witness of your people singing out through the ages. Forgive us when we trap your good news insisting that your grace must be known through our approved tunes, when we limit your story to "the good old days." Forgive us when our lips are sealed in protest or in fear. Open our lips, O God, that we may proclaim your praise. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

God sets us free through Jesus, and forgives our sins. We live in the light of God's love. Thanks be to God! Amen.

Scripture (Read responsively)

Revelation 15:1-4

...³And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

"Great and amazing are your deeds, Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, King of the nations! ⁴Lord, who will not fear and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your judgments have been revealed."

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.
