“Living Waters” (Getty/Cash)

This goes out to every outcast
To the just-don't-quite-fit-in Every runaway, runaway rebel
So ashamed of where you've been

This goes out to every searcher
Tryin' to fill that empty space
Well, your searchin' days are over now
Everything's about to change

Come on down to the Living Water
Waves of mercy rushin' over you
No more strangers, only sons and daughters
Come down to the Living Water and rise up new

Have you heard about a man named Jesus?
He's the way, the truth, the life
Stretched out His arms on a rugged cross
And paid ever sinner's price
So when you're tired of all your runnin'
You don't have to run no more
You can leave it all behind you
Just believe and be reborn

“Come to the Table” (McDonald, Frey, Glover)

We all start on the outside; we're outside looking in. This is where grace begins. We were hungry, we were thirsty with nothing left to give. Oh, the shape that we were in. And just when all hope seemed lost, love opened the door for us. He said, “Come to the table. Come join the sinners who have been redeemed.” Take your place beside the Savior. Sit down and be set free. Come to the table. Come meet this mighty crew of misfits-these liars and these thieves. There's no one unwelcome here. And that sin and shame that you brought with you, you can leave it at the door. And let mercy draw you near.

So, come to the table... To the thief and to the doubter, to the hero and the coward, to the prisoner and the soldier, to the young and to the older, all who hunger, all who thirst, all the last and all the first, all the paupers and the princess, all who fail, you've been forgiven, all who dream and all who suffer, all who loved and lost another, all the chained and all the free, all who follow, all who lead, anyone who's been let down, all the lost, you have been found, all who've been labeled right or wrong. To everyone who hears this song, oh!

Come to the table...
